Snap Your Memories: Korea's Must-Visit 4-Cut Photo Booths!

In Korea, the buzz around “4-cut photo booths” is more than just a passing trend—it’s a whole experience. These compact studios offer a unique way to capture memories through four consecutive snapshots, often arranged in a sleek vertical strip.

While you can find these photo booths throughout Seoul, they are especially concentrated in the vibrant Hongdae area, known for its youthful energy, indie vibes, and creative hotspots. As you stroll through the buzzing streets of Hongdae, don’t just walk past the glowing photo booths—step inside and create your own story. Capture the laughter, the charm, and the moment in your personalized 4-cut photo strip. It’s more than just a snapshot—it’s a pocket-sized memory to take back home and relive long after your trip.

Say Cheese, Then Flip the Page

Capture your favorite moments in the booth—then turn them into a pocket-sized story you’ll treasure forever. Where snapshots become keepsakes and every page sparks a smile.
